

Light Up the World

1. Read John 8:12 again. What are some reasons why God chooses “Light” to describe Himself?
2. Do you recall a moment when God “lit up your life” for the first time? How did you respond to feeling His presence and/or your own inadequacy so strongly? (This is a key part of your testimony—think of Paul on the Road to Damascus (Acts:9:1-9))
3. What do you think it means for light to shine in your heart? Compare Luke 2:32 to 2 Cor. 4:4-6 to help you get a better understanding of this light.
4. “Revelation must lead to transformation.” How does Christmas lead to transformation? While you think about this, you may find that the way we celebrate Christmas often doesn’t lead to transformation, and instead brings out the worst in us. Why is this, and what is one thing you can do to change it?

Light Up the World

1. Read John 8:12 again. What are some reasons why God chooses “Light” to describe Himself?
2. Do you recall a moment when God “lit up your life” for the first time? How did you respond to feeling His presence and/or your own inadequacy so strongly? (This is a key part of your testimony—think of Paul on the Road to Damascus (Acts:9:1-9))
3. What do you think it means for light to shine in your heart? Compare Luke 2:32 to 2 Cor. 4:4-6 to help you get a better understanding of this light.
4. “Revelation must lead to transformation.” How does Christmas lead to transformation? While you think about this, you may find that the way we celebrate Christmas often doesn’t lead to transformation, and instead brings out the worst in us. Why is this, and what is one thing you can do to change it?